MR. M. SIVATHANU PILLAI: What are the special qualification for the Inspector-General of Police to say that he is an authority in the matter?

RAJYASEVAPRAVINA KHAN BAHADUR G. S. ABDUL KARIM SAHIB SUHRAWARDY: Sir, my gray hairs in the Police service. I know how to test a policeman or a policewoman.

MR. P. NARAYANA PILLAI: May I know from the honourable member how courage is tested?

RAJYASEVAPRAVINA KHAN BAHADUR G. S. ABDUL KARIM SAHIB SUHRAWARDY: I give them a severe physical test and through that I find it out.

PRESIDENT: It is quite easy. Supposing a person asks you to jump down a wall ten feet high, if you jump then you are courageous, otherwise, you are not.

MR. K. P. KOCHUKORA THARAKAN (Kunnatnad cum Parur): ഈ കൂട്ടത്തിൽ ഹെഡ് കാൺസ്റ്റബിൽ ആയിട്ടും റിക്രൂട്ട് ചെയ്തിട്ടുണ്ടെന്നു കാണുന്നു. അവർക്ക് പ്രത്യേകമായിട്ട് വല്ല കപ്പാളിഫിക്കേഷനും നിശ്ചയിച്ചിട്ടുണ്ടോ?

RAJYASEVAPRAVINA KHAN BAHADUR G. S. ABDUL KARIM SAHIB SUHRAWARDY: Yes; the same qualification plus something more because she has to be a leader.

MR. PADIYARA JOSEPH KUNJU: ഫിസിക്കൽടെസ്റ്റ് എന്നു പറഞ്ഞതിൽ എന്തെല്ലാം ഉൾപ്പെട്ടുന്നു എന്നു സദയം പ്രസ്താവിക്കുമോ?

PRESIDENT: Order, order. Question No. 4.

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly

MR. KOTTALIL P. ABRAHAM: May I know whether the relaxation of the existing rules would mean the use of neither the new kind of dress nor the old kind of dress by the public servants?

RAJYASEVAPRAVINA G. PARAMESWARAN PILLAI: No, Sir. The existing rules are relaxed to the extent that the public servants are permitted to use the dress prescribed under the new order even now.

PRESIDENT: What is the point that the honourable member wishes to make?

MR. KOTTALIL P. ABRAHAM: Sir, besides the new dress and the old form of dress, I am afraid there is the possibility of a third form of dress being used by public servants. Will such a kind of dress be allowed?

PRESIDENT: I think there is some confusion on this matter. What the Government have done is to direct that, in certain institutions and public offices, clerks and officers may appear in what may be called an approximation to the national dress, or, to put it in another way to use a form of dress suited to this climate not difficult to obtain from the point of view of the present financial condition of the country. Therefore it is that a person can wear either jubba and angavasthram or jubba alone with mundu. If any person is accustomed to wear the European dress at home, or the Muslim dress or any other dress, he is not precluded from wearing that dress in any office or institution. If he is going to adopt this form of dress, nobody is going to complain about that although it is hoped and trusted that all members would use this form of dress which I may say has been generally hailed as a move in the right direction.

Representation re: the Advocates' present professional robes.

6. MR. KOTTALIL P. ABRAHAM: Will the Government be pleased to state:

(a) whether they have received any representation from Advocates or Bar Associations requesting permission to change the Advocates' present professional robes into Jubbas with Gowns; and

(b) if so, the decision thereon by the Government?

RAJYASEVAPRAVINA G. PARAMESWARAN PILLAI: (a) Yes.

(b) The Bar Associations have been told in reply that this is a matter within the discretion of the High Court.

MR. G. VELU PILLAI (Karunagupally cum Kartikapally): May I know whether the High Court have changed the form of dress to be used by the Advocates?

RAJYASEVAPRAVINA G. PARAMESWARAN PILLAI: No, Sir. The High Court have not altered the rules relating to dress prescribed under the Civil Courts Guide.

MR. G. VELU PILLAI: May I know whether the Government are aware that the Bar Council have passed a resolution against any change in the form of dress of the Advocates?
